Puppet show! Puppet show! Bread & Puppet Theater is excited to announce that we will kick off our 61st year by traversing the Northeast and Eastern Seaboard with a brand-new play created with our director, Peter Schumann, for the exact moment at hand. Of the show—The Principle of Hope Show—director Peter Schumann says the show will include “a mother dirt prologue, citizen despair gymnastics, a massmurder victim’s traditional dance of death celebration, and an absentee humanity dance. The Principle of Hope Show features a flock of disaster ravens and hope principle caribou with exorcism rites for the genociders.”

The company will play cities from Rutland, VT to Washington, DC, with the full tour schedule available at BreadAndPuppet.org/Tour. After the show Bread & Puppet will serve its famous sourdough rye bread with aioli, and Bread & Puppet’s “Cheap Art” – books, posters, postcards, pamphlets and banners from the Bread & Puppet Press – will be for sale.

To book this tour, we are looking for a great variety of venues all over the Eastern states – from schools to churches, community centers to theaters and hay barns!

Find a more info, photos, and video of The Bread and Puppet Theater at breadandpuppet.org
Bread and Puppet Theater
Founded in 1963 by Peter Schumann on New York City’s Lower East Side, Bread & Puppet has been based in the North East Kingdom of Vermont since the early 1970s and is one of the oldest, nonprofit, self-supporting theatrical companies in the country. Well known for its visually rich, street-theater brand of performance art, Bread and Puppet revels in music, dance, and slapstick-filled celebratory protest. Believing that theater is a basic necessity like bread, the company frequently brings its work to the streets for those who may not otherwise go to the theater. Its shows are political and spectacular, frequently featuring puppets on stilts, huge masks with expressive faces, singing, dancing, and a richly elaborated repertoire of iconic characters.

Bread and Puppet is recognized throughout the world and has won distinction at international theater festivals in Italy, Poland, Colombia, and Yugoslavia, beginning with their break-out performances at the 1968 Nancy Festival in France. Notable awards include the Erasmus Prize of Amsterdam, 4 Obies, the Puppeteers of America's President Award, and the Vermont Governor's Award. Bread and Puppet is constantly active, performing at its farm in Glover, VT, and in local churches, schools and parades. It regularly tours Europe, Canada, and the United States and has recently visited El Salvador, Haiti, Russia, Greece and Korea.

Theater description based on the Biography of Bread and Puppet that accompanies the Bread and Puppet Archives at the University of Vermont, Burlington. Full text here:

http://cdi.uvm.edu/findingaids/collection/bredpupt.ead.xml

Find a more info, photos, and video of The Bread and Puppet Theater at breadandpuppet.org
SHOW LOGISTICS
● Title: The Principle of Hope Show
● Length: One hour
● Theater Type: Indoor
● Minimum stage size: 20 feet wide, 20 feet deep, 15 feet height
● Tech: We bring our own lights (a single standard outlet will do) and we are 100% acoustic.
● Audience: While our shows are not specifically designed for children, there is nothing graphic nor inappropriate for them in our shows.

TENTATIVE ROUTE / SCHEDULE
● Friday, March 29 - Bread and Puppet, Glover, VT
● Saturday, March 30 - The Old Labor Hall, Barre, VT
● Sunday, March 31 - The Paramount Theatre, Rutland, VT
● Tuesday, April 2 - Westminster Presbyterian Church, Albany, NY
● Wednesday, April 3 - Time and Space Limited, Hudson, NY
● Thursday, April 4 - TBD
● Friday, April 5 - CSMA, Ithaca, NY
● Saturday, April 6 - Arts Academy of Milton, PA
● Sunday, April 7 - 2640 Space, Baltimore, MD
● Tuesday, April 9 - TBD
● Wednesday, April 10 - Judson Church, NYC
● Thursday, April 11 - Judson Church, NYC
● Friday, April 12 - TBD
● Saturday, April 13 - First Unitarian Church, Philadelphia, PA
● Sunday, April 14 - TBD
● Tuesday, April 16 - TBD
● Wednesday, April 17 - Amherst, MA
● Thursday, April 18 - The Armory, Somerville, MA
● Friday, April 19 - TBD
● Saturday, April 20 - Mayo Street Arts, Portland, ME
● Sunday, April 21 - TBD
Spring 2024 Tour - Basic Information Booking Release

Booking inquiries please contact
Paul Bedard
860-918-0850
breadandpuppettour@gmail.com

VIDEOS OF PAST WORK
Watch 2023’s Inflammatory Earthling Rants at https://www.youtube.com/live/R8MS5vJSS4o
Watch 2017-2018’s The Basic Bye Bye Show at https://youtu.be/Vn0AaFCEC84

WHAT WE’RE LOOKING FOR
Successful tour stops generally involve organizing the following conditions:

● An audience! We love playing to crowds large and small, adults and children, students and everyone else! While we have a following in the region, we rely on our hosts to get the word out.

● Space. Indoor performance venues can include theaters, auditoriums, halls, and gyms. The minimum size for this show is a stage 20 feet wide by 20 feet deep with at least 15 feet of height.

● Housing. We will be a group of about 12 puppeteers. We love beds, but we’re also a flexible bunch and happy to sleep on couches, mats, etc. We will need at least a few beds.

● Funding. Bread and Puppet typically receives a performance fee to cover our touring expenses, and at most shows we “pass the hat” for a suggested donation from the audience. Our goal is to walk away from each show with at least $5,000. We can make many models work and we are eager to work with you.

● Food. We love it!

TALKBACKS & WORKSHOPS AVAILABLE
Time and resources allowing, we love engaging with students and communities in the towns and cities we visit. We have workshops available on a range of subjects, including table-top puppet shows, cantastorias, and puppetry in performance. Q&A’s are an option after our shows, as are class visits.

BOOKING INQUIRIES
Bread and Puppet is currently seeking out venues. Please contact Paul Bedard (860-918-0850, breadandpuppettour@gmail.com) if you’re interested in bringing B&P to your town, city or school.